

Adventure Travel Agency in Huaraz - (Peru Expeditions Tours)

Dear Sir or Madam,

We would like to introduce ourselves to you as an experienced travel agency that can support you in planning your tours to Peru. My name is Mary Prunty, Peru Expeditions' US Travel Coordinator.

Eric Albino together with his father Juventino would be honored to show you the beauty of the Cordillera Blanca mountains. Both Eric and his father are certified mountain guides. They have been actively guiding trekking groups and expeditions in the Cordillera Blanca for many years, building a strong experienced team.

Established in 1978 in Huaraz as a family business, the travel agency has since been run by its family members. Eric and his father both have impressive careers as mountain guides, along with over 42 years of managerial experience in the tourism industry. This multi-faceted experience allows Peru Expeditions to deliver exceptional service as we possess an in depth understanding of how to properly organize a professional expedition or trek from start to finish.

When preparing our tours our agency cooperates with licensed mountain guides certified by the International Federation of Mountain Guides Association (IVBV – UIAGM – IFMGA). Our guides also speak Spanish, English, German, French, and Italian.

The most popular tours we offer in Cordillera Blanca and Cordillera Huayhuash are:

- Santa Cruz Trek

We can organize everything for you on the spot including airport transfers, hotel bookings, transportation to the starting points, acclimatization routes, carriers, etc. It is especially important for us to provide our customers with fresh and nutritious food throughout the tour from base camp to high camp.

Should your clients have any special requests or ideas of tailor-made tours, we are eager to meet your expectations.
